For the 2016 – 2017 Visual Arts Gallery Season

OPUS 99: The Photography of Robert Rice

January 20 – March 11, 2017

Opening Reception: Friday, January 20, 2017, 7 – 9 P.M.

An Arizona resident since 1974, Robert Rice has photographed for over 35 years. Largely focusing on nature, landscapes, and more recently flowers, Robert's work has often concentrated on the borderline between the abstract and reality. Photographing since moving to Arizona, Robert has worked in a variety of formats from traditional camera to digital. Robert has created a wide range of series of bodies of work, including botanicals, transportation & machinery, architecture, and still life.

Robert's works are available for the public to peruse at his website www.robertricefinephoto.com, and he has since shown his work with the Chandler Public Library, Boyce Thompson Arboretum and Northern Trust Bank. His works are in numerous private and corporate collections. In 2001, he won the "Photograph of the Year" award from AFECA Tour Consultants.
